Back From Greek Army.
John Tigris, the young Greek, who left here September last for Greece to join the army in the war against Turkey returned to Willimantic a few days ago, and has accepted employment in a local restaurant. Tigris states his first war experiences were anxious days but afterwards the fighting followed the stormy anticipations. When the armistice was declared he was merrily out with other volunteers at Athens. Records showed that 20,000 Greeks from America had responded to their country's call to arms. Peter Lewis, the wrestler, who about a year ago conducted a business in this city, is a member of one of the Greek regiments.

What You Can Wear in the Early Days of Spring

Don't you just love these beautiful days of early spring, when upon going out, you begin to question the need for your erstwhile quite important topcoat? And very soon you will really discard it altogether. Then, naturally you will want that form of dress that is between just a little frock and a coat.

The new cloth, Imported Irish Corduroy and Ratine which are very much in demand are delightfully adapted for this purpose.

New Cloth is 28-inch wide and sells at 25c.

Imported Irish Corduroy is 28-inch wide and sells for 39c a yard.

Ratine is 46-inch wide and sells for 75c a yard.

A little frock like the illustration can be easily made from the Ladies' Home Journal, No. 7560, at pattern-counter, 15c.

Six Children Drowned During Past Quarter—S. of V. Camp Organized—Bravery of Deputy Sheriff Grimshaw—Big Audience at Wauregan Minstrel Show.

Of the toll of life taken suddenly in Windham county towns during the first three months of the year drownings of children are the most impressive, six such cases being recorded in the last quarter, which is as follows for the quarter:

January 1—Howard Barbour, 4 months, Thompson; death due to natural cause.
January 8—Joseph Peplin, 49, Putnam, alcoholic poisoning.
January 13—John B. Dubois, 70, Putnam, heart disease; death due to natural cause.
January 25—John B. Dubois, 70, Putnam, heart disease; death due to natural cause.

January 28—Walter I. Fenner, 37, Sterling, fracture of skull due to falling from a wagon while suffering from an epileptic fit.
February 1—Sarah Young, 49, Willimantic, death due to fracture of the skull.
February 11—Rebecca Williams, 60, Putnam, death due to heart disease.

February 15—William H. Brown, 60, Putnam, death due to heart disease; death due to accidental cause.
February 18—Willie Leslie Mackie, 9, Putnam, death by drowning in Oneco pond.
February 18—Samuel A. Robatallie, 4, Moosup, drowned.
February 20—John G. Robatallie, 2, Moosup, drowned.

Officers of New S. of V. Camp.
The following are the officers of the newly organized William H. Hamilton camp, Veterans of Foreign Wars, No. 10, Putnam, Charles S. Francis, commander, Frank E. Kies, senior vice commander, Frank E. Young, junior vice commander, C. R. Rapp, officer of the day, Frank A. Herrick, officer of the guard, George A. Popple, trustee for one year, Charles Naylor, trustee for one year, Charles Naylor, trustee for one year, Charles Naylor, trustee for one year.

Corrected figures show that the total amount raised at the mass meeting for the new Congregational parish house, Monday evening, was $7,944.50, one hundred dollars more than was reported on the church bulletin. The address by Rev. R. H. Potter, D. D., of Hartford, reviewing the development of church activities, will show very substantial additions to the fund. Rev. C. P. Croft, who supplied by legislation the church when it was without a pastor several years ago, is spending the week in the city and is receiving a hearty welcome from many of his Willimantic friends.

An amusing topographical inadvertence Tuesday report of the campaign for the mass meeting has caused Representative E. Frank Bugbee, who contributed $1000 to the fund, to be facetious congratulations. Instead of the prefix "Rep" before his name, the newspaper has transferred him from the law to the department of "dained" him a "Rev." Representative Bugbee is taking the joke good-naturedly and his friends insist that between legislative sessions he is busy studying election and fore-ordination.

Interesting Meeting of Woman's Club.
The Woman's club held a most profitable meeting at the club rooms Tuesday afternoon. The program included a vocal solo by Miss Marion Carpenter who was accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Aswell. Art and music in general was the subject of the paper by Miss Hailigan. Her review of Chinese music was illustrated with piano and violin interpretations by Miss Hubbard and Miss Bianchette. Mrs. Gates contributed a paper on the religion of China and read a letter bearing upon this subject by Rev. E. H. Smith of Ing Hok, China.

Were on the Streams Early.
Fish stories that were no April fool jokes were told by many enthusiastic anglers Tuesday night as they returned from the brooks where the trout could not resist the tempting bait at the ends of their alluring hooks.

Sit Against Ashford Man.
Mary A. and Albert W. Parker of Willimantic have brought civil action against Henry E. Knowlton of Ashford to recover $114 they claim due for teaching. The case is returnable at the superior court in Tolland county the first Tuesday in May. Lawyer P. J. Danahey is counsel for the plaintiff.

News in Brief.
Many relatives and friends from Wester, Norwich and Willimantic were at the funeral of Mrs. Bridget L. Curley in New London on Monday.

Russell Porter Clark, department commander of the Spanish War Veterans, of Stamford, called on Ordinance Sergeant James Cochrane yesterday.

The Myrtle-Harder stock company emphasized the favorable impression they made with local theatre goers at Loomer Opera House last evening. Their presentation of Brewster's Millions was an admirable performance.

Secretary A. J. Bowen of the South Coventry Paper company, has issued a call for the annual meeting to be held next Saturday. A director is to be elected to succeed W. L. Higgins, resigned and business matters are to be considered.

JEWETT CITY.
Fishermen Claim Brooks Are Too High For Sport—A Costly Railroad Week—Casualty—Winding—Golden Links A Flood Fund.

The open season for trout began with a little promise of rain, but several weeks, yet. Local fishermen who were out prospecting find the brooks nearly all overflooded, and the fishing grounds of the brook and Camp, Hay and Palmer brooks are all bank full in the cuts, with the meadows on both sides under one and two feet of water. A visitor Monday to two of the best brooks in this section, below the dam at the Mount Misery country, reported that it was impossible to trace the channels through the low water.

Fishermen believe that a little later fishing will be at its best for the two seasons, that the fish will be scarce by frozen over last winter, now they dried up last fall, both of which conditions destroy many of the finger-trout with which the brooks are stocked in summer.

Railroad Wrecks in Former Years.
Never in the history of Jewett City has there been so disastrous a railroad wreck from the monetary standpoint as that which occurred a week ago Monday morning. Two engines and a passenger car were wrecked. No lives were lost but a dozen persons were injured. People are recalling thirty years ago, when a passenger car of the boat train jumped the track and ran into Tadpole pond, one other car was wrecked, and a passenger was killed. Old residents have interested many in telling the story of a young man, who when the morning way freight ran into the open house track wrecked at the station. A string of freight cars, including a passenger car, were crossing when the freight car crossed was practically demolished. The station agent at that time was Kate E. Cole, who, hearing of the crash and roar of the collision, took French leave, made a hurried exit through the rear window of the depot, sash and all. Much to the astonishment of those who stood by.

GRAVED CIGARETTES.
Three youths who robbed Nelson Leclair will remain in jail.

The indications Tuesday were that the three young bandits who robbed Nelson Leclair at the corner of the street will remain in Brooklyn jail until the time comes for them to appear in the superior court, where they will probably be in May. The prisoners made no trouble for the police during their stay here. They are not kept in the superior court, where they are very much and after the first surprise of their arrest was over, brightened in spirits, which had slumped considerably soon after their arrest.

PEST OF TRAIN JUMPERS.
Crews Bothered by Tramps and Thieves—Detectives Get Busy.

Railroad detectives are working in this section, endeavoring to discover who fired two shots from a revolver at the crew of the crew of an East Hartford freight, after the trainman had driven three bumps off the track. The investigation has been having considerable bother with these hobnobbers of late, but the shooting incident, which occurred a few miles north of Putnam, is the most serious offense yet committed.

Sticking to the contents of cars and other unlawful practices which the tramps have been guilty of has been the cause of much trouble with the railroad people, and the detectives hope to round up some of the worst of these lawless hobnobbers off the train and of the boldness of that class.
